“Heritage Corridors of Bath”
An Ohio Scenic Byway

Bath Township, Summit County, Ohio
Population: 10,000
Square Mileage: 23 Square Miles
Heritage Corridors of Bath
Approved February 3, 2000 by ODOT
Management Plan and Brochure
39 miles of county roads designated as an Ohio Scenic Byway
Three Hamlets

- Hammond’s Corners
- Bath Center
- Ghent
Bath Center
the heart
of the community
Places to see........................
Century Homes and Barns
Bath Township Museum
Monday 2-4 pm / Wednesday 9 am–2 pm
Last Saturday Each Month 10 am-Noon
…Chief Logan at Bath Community Park
Octagon Bee House
Historic Alderfer's Mill
..Covered Bridge at Oak Hill Road
Bake Shop in Ghent Hamlet Historic District
Butterfly Garden at the Bath Community Park
Events
...Memorial Day Observance at Veterans’ Memorial Park
May 27, 2019
Bath Art Festival
June 2, 2019
10 am-5 pm
Horse Show
August 17 and 18, 2019
Annual Barn Social
September 11, 2019
11  Steeplechase
October 12, 2019
...Fall into Nature
October 12, 2019   12:00 – 3:00 p.m.
Wye Road Bridge Lighting
November 22, 2019
Things to do.............
...learning from the information panels at the Heritage Corridors of Bath Wayside Exhibit at 1000 Cleveland Massillon Road farming the land at Crown Point
....mastering the steps at
O’Neil Woods
Metro Park
taking a self guided Cemetery Tour camping at Camp Christopher hiking North Fork Trail at the Bath Nature Preserve learning at the University of Akron Field Station on the Bath Nature Preserve
...therapeutic riding at Victory Gallop
...experiencing the past at Hale Farm and Village
......seeing a play at Western Reserve Playhouse
..................playing at Bath Community Park
sledding the hills at the Bath Nature Preserve
2006 Scenic Ohio Award
2004 Merit Award
American Society of Landscape Architects
Photos taken or contributed by

- Bath Fire Department
- Bill Funk
- Bill Snow
- Crown Point
- Debbie McKinney
- Elaina Goodrich
- Jody Miller Konstand
- Jason Andrew
- Ian Adams of Hale Farm and Village
- Larry McVay
- Louis and Partners
- Marie Dusini
- Metro Parks
- Mike Rorar
- Peg Shriber
- Susan Abramson
Bath Township, Summit County, Ohio
Population: 10,000
Square Mileage: 23 Square Miles